

A BETTER LIFE THROUGH AUTHENTIC CONNECTION

Maddox

Hi, I'm Maddox. I became a mentor because I genuinely believe that everyone deserves the opportunity to be heard, supported, and empowered to follow their dreams. With over four years of experience supporting a diverse range of clients of all ages, I've developed a strong understanding of how to build trust, encourage growth, and create safe, judgment-free spaces for people to thrive.

I hold a Certificate IV in Disability, and I bring both professional skills and a deeply human approach to mentoring. I'm an empathetic listener who works collaboratively — I won't tell you what to do, but I'll stand beside you as we figure it out together. My focus is always on building genuine, respectful relationships where you feel supported, seen, and in control of your own journey.

If you enjoy creativity, you'll feel right at home with me. I'm passionate about all things art and cinema, and I love exploring new ideas through creative expression. I also love getting out for a walk, doing a bit of shopping, or just having a great chat over a movie.

If you're looking for a mentor who brings both experience and warmth — someone who can support you in developing confidence, independence, and joy in everyday life — I'd love to be part of your journey.
